EXPLORE ALL CORNERS BY STREETCAR

New Orleans' streetcars have been a staple of public transportation in the city for centuries. The St. Charles Ave. Streetcar line is the world's oldest continually operating streetcar line.

MARDI GRAS

Mardi Gras is a 1-3 month stretch of the year where the streets come alive with music, art, costumes and parades. Beginning on Twelfth Night, January 6, revelry only increases as we make our way toward Mardi Gras Day.

BIRTHPLACE OF JAZZ

New Orleans is renowned for its vibrant music scene and lively festivals. Whether you're strolling through the French Quarter or two-stepping to Zydeco tunes, New Orleans offers an unforgettable experience!

GLOBAL CAFÉ

Tulane's Global Café program is a gathering place for internationally-minded Tulanians to build friendships and global understanding by engaging and learning from one another.

CRAWFEST

Tulane's student-run music, food and arts festival located in the heart of the university features live music, vendors and plenty of crawfish. Plus, it's free for students!

GREEN WAVE ATHLETICS

A member of the American Athletic Conference, Tulane offers a competitive 16 sport program. Tulane has 10 women's and 6 men's teams that are ready to compete for a championship.

CAMPUS LIFE

Tulane is the 9th oldest private university in the Association of American Universities, which consists of major research universities in the United States and Canada. Located in the heart of Uptown New Orleans, and known for its large live oak trees and historic buildings, the main Tulane campus consists of over 110 acres (0.45 sq. km.) of land.

550,000+ community service hours logged by the Tulane community each year on average.

Over 200 student-led clubs and organizations.

15+ different eateries on campus to grab a bite

25+ libraries and research centers

ACADEMICS AT TULANE

Academic life and culture in the United States can be quite different from other countries. In general, our visiting students report that they enjoy the additional assessment and feedback received from professors throughout the semester. They also appreciate how supportive professors and advisors can be here at Tulane.

Freeman exchange students take a majority of their courses in business from the following areas:

- Management
- Marketing
- Finance
- Accounting
- Legal Studies in Business
- Management Sciences

In addition to business courses, Freeman exchange students can take courses in disciplines, such as:

- Economics
- Foreign Languages
- Political Science
- History
- and more!

According to former exchange students, one can look forward to:

- A strong presence of professors who are readily available to help students
- Meeting students from all around the world
- Access to different course offerings
- Campus services within close proximity

Schwartz Family Center for Experiential Business Learning

The center hosts classes and interactive events that feature the latest technology and enable undergraduate and graduate students to work on collaborative projects with industry experts.

Working with local, regional, national and global corporations, students gain invaluable experience and connections, while companies benefit from student efforts to enhance various aspects of their operations including devising solutions that improve earnings, cut costs and gauge or mitigate risks.

“I am deeply thankful after completing a life-changing exchange semester at the Freeman School of Business.

This experience has been incredibly enriching, exposing me to a vibrant mix of cultures, knowledge and personal development. Immersing myself in the history and cultural tapestry of the city has been a profound experience and being a part of such a remarkable institution has been an honor.”

HOW TO APPLY

To be eligible for the exchange program, an applicant must be enrolled as a full-time student at one of our partner institutions. For more information on how to apply, students should consult with their home school's International Exchange Office and may visit Freeman Abroad's online student portal for more information.

Incoming exchange students are directly enrolled in business courses alongside Freeman students and can choose from the full course catalog, as long as they meet course eligibility requirements. Exchange students pay their home university tuition and are awarded credit at their home university upon completion of the program.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Students must:

- Have successfully completed at least one year full-time study at the home institution
- Be in good to excellent academic standing at the home institution
- Meet all admission or specific requirements of the home institution
- Provide proof of English proficiency (see online score requirements)

NOMINATION PROCEDURE

The Exchange Coordinator at the home university sends student nominations to Freeman Study Abroad office.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Nominated students will receive an e-mail with instructions to submit application forms in our online application portal. All required application forms and documents must be received by the deadlines.
